

Melissa is an Oxford based Soprano in her final year of undergraduate Physics at Corpus Christi College. This year, she joins the Oxford Bach Soloists as a Choral Scholar in addition to her freelance work and singing in the Magdalen College Consort of Voices. Melissa's past performances have included solos on BBC Radio 3, at Westminster Abbey, and at the Royal Albert Hall. She began her vocal training at the Junior Department of Guildhall School of Music and Drama and continues under the tutelage of Carys Lane.
