

Anna Townsend - Mezzo-Soprano

Anna is in her third year studying Mathematics and Statistics at Oriel College, University of Oxford. She previously attended the Junior Royal Northern College of Music for four years, where she was awarded the Helen Latta Soroptimist Prize for singing and the Leverhulme Scholarship. Anna has played leading operatic roles with the Oxford Contemporary Opera Society, Manchester Contemporary Youth Opera, Opera Britain and Oxford Opera Society, and covered the role of Zerlina in Don Giovanni with the Oxford Alternative Orchestra. She performed in the Music For Youth National Finals and recently enjoyed a masterclass with Andreas Scholl.

Since 2019, Anna has been a choral exhibitor in the Choir of The Queen's College, Oxford and was previously a member of the Hallé Youth Choir. She is currently taught singing by Richard Strivens.