

Karol is a 21-year-old Polish countertenor, currently in his final year of study at New College, where he is an Academical Clerk, and is taught by Sally Burgess. During his time at Oxford, Karol has performed with many choirs, and has been a choral scholar with the Oxford Bach Soloists; providing him many solo opportunities, as well as performing as a soloist with the Oxford University Chorus, and New College Choir in Bach's Christmas Oratorio and St John's Passion. In August, Karol made his operatic debut at the Tete-a-tete Opera Festival in London as part of a triple bill of contemporary works. Karol has taken part in masterclasses with Michael Chance, Laurence Cummings and Roderick Williams; and is receiving vocal coaching from renowned countertenor Iestyn Davies.