Dennis and the Menaces

Rosanna Milner (soprano)

Joshua Dennis (alto)

Luke Sitaraman (tenor)

Ben Gilchrist (bass)

Despite the name of the group, “Dennis and the Menaces” has no founder or director, instead being run as a team effort by all four members. The group primarily exists for the Trinity 2024 chamber music exam in which Rosanna, Joshua and Luke are all being examined (Ben’s there just for fun) and the programme presented today is identical to the one planned for the final recital. The group brings together members of both Queen’s and Magdalen college choir and the repertoire is derived partly from evensong music that the members have encountered during their time at Oxford.
